

Robin Benton

Emergency

Education

Doctor of Veterinary Medicine, University of Pennsylvania, 2007

Bachelor of Science in Biology, Indiana University of Pennsylvania, 1999

Professional Experience

Associate Veterinarian, Banfield, The Pet Hospital, Downingtown, PA, 2007-2008

Associate Veterinarian, VCA Smoketown Animal Hospital, Lancaster, PA, 2008-2012

Emergency Veterinarian, Berks Animal Emergency & Referral Center, Shillington, PA, 2012-2016

American Veterinary Medical Association member

Veterinary Emergency Critical Care Society member

"Avets allows me to provide exemplary veterinary care and compassion to treat pets as if they were one of my own, while being part of an extraordinary team that shares these values."

Personal Interests

Dr. Benton enjoys photography, hiking and being outdoors, as well as spending time with family, friends and her adopted horse.